PLEASURES PROMISED

Students to Hear Noted Entertainers and to See Interesting Motion Pictures—Social Program is Full of Many Good Things.

That students should have enough social life, but not enough to prohibit them from learning the "overwhelming assignments which the faculty make" is the idea of President Lamkin as expressed when he made the announcements about entertainment for the summer quarter.

Mr. Lamkin promises the picture, "Monsieur Beauchamp," to be here probably June 19-20.

On June 24 and 25, Gay MacLaren will be here. She is a very fine dramatic artist. June 24, Thursday night, she will present "Fathers and Dads." No definite announcement can now be made for Friday night. The admission is fifty cents for the first night and seventy-five for the second, or a ticket to the two performances for one dollar.

Sometime during the week beginning June 28, County Recreation Day will be held. Each county will participate in some way. The affair is under the direction of the Welfare Committee.

June 9, Ernest Davis will appear in an evening's recital. He is well known here, having appeared as tenor soloist during Music Week. A big attendance is expected, as he proved popular with his audience at that time. "Wanderers of the Wasteland," a picture will probably be shown July 17 and 18.

During the week beginning July 19, the Y. W. C. A. Lawn Fete will be held. This is an annual affair and is much looked forward to by those having already attended one fete.

Dr. Edith Swift of New York City, a noted lecturer, will be here July 23, 24, 25.

In addition to these affairs there will be three band concerts on the campus during the summer months and Play Night will be observed regularly each Thursday evening from 6:45 to 7:45. At least one other picture will be shown, but no announcement can be made as yet. One or two dancing parties will be held and more if the student body desires them.

Talks on Christian Life

The problem of living a Christian life was the subject of an inspiring talk delivered by Reverend S. P. Allison to the student body at the first regular assembly of the summer session.

In introducing his subject Mr. Allison spoke of the address given here at the commencement exercises by President Nadal of Drury College. President Nadal likened life to a triangle with the vertices representing God, the individual, and mankind.

Mr. Allison developed his topic by using a circle to represent perfection and completion. Ideally, life should be as a circle, united about a center, but in actuality it is full of conflicts and problems, which detract from its likeness to the circle.

In the life of each person the great question is, "What Shall I do with Myself?" This question and the one of true relationship with God are the two things which should form the two centers in the circle of every man's life. This makes an ellipse which, if the centers are far apart, does not run smoothly. The problem of the Christian life is to bring these two centers together in order to form a perfect circle out of the ellipse.

In his closing remarks Mr. Allison expressed the desire for the teachers present to strive for this perfection, that the younger generation who might be under their guidance in the future might be under wholesome influences.

SOCIAL SCIENCE CLUB.

Watch for announcement of the first meeting of the Social Science Club. If interested plan to come. Become a member if you can pass the membership committee. If you seek wholesome mental food we shall try to make you happy.

Augusta Quill of King City, who received her B. S. Degree from S. T. C. in 1923, is spending her summer in Boulder, Colorado, attending the University.

J. E. McKee, superintendent of the Phillips School, was a visitor at the College last Thursday. He was looking for high school teachers.

Office Force Enjoy Picnic and Supper

The office force, feeling that all work and no play would make a very dull summer, laid aside their work about 5:30 Thursday afternoon, June 4, got into the College bus, and journeyed to the White farm, four miles west of town, where they spent a very delightful evening taking pictures and playing games. A delicious picnic supper was served consisting of nearly everything that could be desired on such an occasion.

Those present of the office force were: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Blomfield, Webster Young, Danton Peoples, Elsie Brown, Jessamine Williams, Florence Holiday, Louise Freeman, Russell Hamilton, Richard Kirby, Lois Lawson, Marie Blue, Kenneth Fouts, Albert Hector, Werner Moentman, Merle Seelman, and Nell Hudson. Miss Florence Puckett a former member of the office force was also present. Dean and Mrs. Colbert, Mr. and Mrs. Rickenbrode, and Mr. Hawkins chaperoned the group.

Camp Fire Girls.

Camp Ti-Ka-Ta-I-Da-Ka of the National Camp Fire Girls will be pleased to welcome any Camp Fire girls who are attending the College during the summer. To get in touch with the camp, call the president, Virginia Brown, Telephone 6121, or the guardian, Mrs. L. E. White, 3641.

Dorothea Phares, Doris Thompson, and Ina Wachtel spent the week-end at their homes in Savannah.

PARENT-TEACHER'S INSTITUTE HELD

National Field Secretary Here to Conduct Meetings at Which Leadership is Theme—State President Also Here.

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week, S. T. C. entertained representatives of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. The meetings were held under the direction of Miss Frances Hay, National Field Secretary. The theme of the meetings was leadership, and the purpose, to develop leaders who will organize and carry on the work in the county and community.

The National Congress of Parents and Teachers originated in 1907 as the National Congress of Mothers. The fact that the association began as a national organization was pointed out by Miss Hay as being significant because most organizations of such magnitude begin as small separate units. The object of this Congress was to protect and help the child by producing better trained parents, and by cleansing the atmosphere of home and school. Later, the membership was enlarged to include teachers and fathers; the name was then changed to the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. At present there is a total membership in the United States of 900,000 parents and teachers. There are organizations in 47 states as well as in Mexico, France, Germany, South America, and Hawaii. Last year, courses similar to those given here were held in 21 universities and colleges in various states. This year work is being done by three field secretaries in the east, middle west and west. Miss Hay came to Maryville from Columbia, Missouri where she held classes at the University.

Nodaway County is comparatively weak in its parent-teacher organizations but this is not due to any lack of interest on the part of the faculty and students of the college, which is doing larger work than any other State Teachers College in the state, according to Mrs. F. O. Cox of Kansas City, president of the State Parent-Teachers organization.

During the morning Mrs. Cox gave short talks before various classes in education and several classes under Dr. Keller went to the auditorium to attend sessions. Mrs. Cox emphasized particularly the need for, and purpose of, the parent-teacher associations. Five points listed as fundamental reasons were: to promote child welfare; to raise home standards; to secure better laws for women and children; to promote a closer co-operation between parents and teachers and between parents; and to develop an understanding public opinion.

Miss Minnie B. James and Miss Blanche Dow have returned to S. T. C. to resume their work. They were granted leaves of absence last year and have been attending Columbia University, New York.

Miss Dow completed work for a Master's Degree in the Romance languages. Miss James has been doing graduate work in Columbia. Vesta Wright has accepted a position as one of the primary teachers in the Young school in St. Joseph.

Cello Solos, "Slow Movement of Concerto" and "Scherzo," by Van Goens. Following the program, Mr. Lamkin made a few announcements concerning entertainment for the summer. Temple Allen, president of the student council, called attention to the fact that there were vacancies on the council and that they should be filled according to the new constitution.

WOMEN ARE WELCOMED

Dean Barnard Meets College Women to Bid Them Welcome and Assure Them That the College Wishes for Them Pleasant Associations.

Dean Barnard met all College women at 3:15 p. m. Thursday, June 4, and in a very pleasing manner made them welcome to S. T. C. The Dean wants the college women to have what is found in their books and to have something more. She wants them

To know each other;
To know the Faculty;
To visit her office to tell troubles and triumphs;

To meet Faculty and fellow students at Residence Hall each Sunday from three o'clock to five;

To join County groups;
To come and enjoy Thursday Evening Play-time;

To use Parlor for relaxation and visiting;
To use Library and Auditorium for study;

To report all illness to the Dean;
To eat lunch only in Room 124 or 126;

To join a literary society, or work to become qualified to join;
To join the Y. W. C. A., or the Newman Club;

To observe the Golden Rule.

Dean Barnard, after her talk introduced the numbers of a very interesting program. Christine Goff sang "Sylvia" and "Crossing the Stile." Grace Foster, representing the Philo Society, Mrs. May representing the Excelsors, and Helen Qualls, representing the Eureka, made peppy speeches and aroused interest in their organizations. Some of the questions that bother a student in his task of getting an education were answered by these speakers as follows:

Do you want to be something? Belong to the Philomatheans and be a "lover of Learning."

Do you want to go somewhere? Belong to the Excelsors and go "Ever Higher!"

Are you looking for something? Belong to the Eureka and say, "I Have Found It!"

Julia Hankins then presented the Y. W. C. A. program, closing with two songs in which Dorothy England, Jeannette Bush, Ruth Cline, and Laura Margaret Raines joined her.

Mae Sturm outlined the purpose and ideals of the Newman Club.

Alice Allen sang "Narcissus" and "Me and My Little Banjo."

The closing number of this interesting hour was "Dates a la S. T. C." by Dean Barnard.

Golda Atry, a former student, spent the week-end in Maryville with the Garrets. Her mother, Mrs. Nellie Atry, has been visiting in the town for the past six weeks. They returned to St. Louis Monday evening, where Miss Atry has a position with the Victor people.

Mrs. Claude Glass and sons, George Curtis and Kenneth Eugene are visiting Mrs. Glass' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Curfman. Mrs. Glass was formerly Miss Laura Curfman. She received her B. S. degree from S. T. C. in 1923. Her home is now at Hot Sulphur Springs, Colorado.

E. R. Adams of Turko, former president of the Maryville District of the State Teachers Association, was a visitor at the College last Thursday. He is planning to sell accident insurance during his summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Livengood are attending the summer session of the University of Missouri. They are both graduates of S. T. C.

Veronica Berg attended the wedding of her cousin, Marie Berg, Tuesday.

Faculty Give Reception

The members of the faculty entertained the student body at Residence Hall, Sunday afternoon from three to five with an informal reception. The purpose of the reception was to acquaint the students with their instructors, and with each other.

Mr. Herbert Gray, head of the violin department, gave two very interesting selections on the cello. He was accompanied by Mr. Charles B. Gardner, Dean of Music. Mr. Luther Richman, head of the voice department, sang two selections, accompanied by Ruth Houshouser. Punch was served from two tables.

Attends Anniversary of His Alma Mater

Mr. C. E. Wells went to Parkville last week to attend the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of Park College. Mr. Wells was a representative from S. T. C., and he reports that there were sixty delegates from other schools there. Mr. Wells received both his A. B. and M. A. degrees from Park College.

Speaking and the dedication of Wakefield Science Hall, a new $200,000 building constituted the day's program. The main speaker of the day was Mr. Joseph Ernest McAfee, the son of the founder of Park College.

The regular commencement exercises were also held at this time. The L. L. D. degree was conferred upon Fred Shepherd, a brother of Miss Grace Shepherd of our faculty. Mr. Shepherd is now manager of the American Bankers Association of New York City.

Library Open at Night.

Since Wednesday, June 10, the College Library has been open until nine o'clock in the evening for students who wish to use it for study purposes.

It was announced by President Lamkin in assembly that students were expected to return to their rooming places directly after closing hours. He also emphasized the fact that only the library was open for students—that halls and class-rooms were not to be used.

Helen Cranor, who has been attending S. T. C., for the past two years, has been elected to teach the third grade in the Ridgeway Public school for the ensuing year.

Irene and Christine Goff spent May 25-31 in St. Joseph with their mother, Mrs. Mary E. Goff.

MAKES REPORTS OF EXTENSION WORK

Mr. Cooper, Director of Work by Extension, Reports 862 People Served This Year Against 716 Last Year.

Mr. Bert Cooper, director of the extension and correspondence work of the college, made the following report of the people served in that department for the nine months period beginning September 1, 1924 and ending June 1, 1925:

Total number of extension classes this year 73; last year 54.

Total number of students in extension classes this year 862; last year 716.

Total number of students taking correspondence this year 230; last year 220.

Total number of students in extension department this year 1,092; last year 936.

According to S. C. Richeson, State High School Inspector, and F. A. Thompson, State Rural School Inspector, approximately 3,000 teachers took correspondence and extension work in the State of Missouri this year. This shows that of all the Missouri teachers taking this work, over one-third of them was served by the department at Northwest Missouri State Teachers College.

The enrollment so far this school year in this department shows an increase of 156 students over the total for last year, and an increase of 401 over the preceding year.

This college has always held to the opinion that the "college should be taken" to the student in the field who is unable to take work in residence. The fact that students appreciate this educational service is shown by the large enrollment.

In addition to the regular faculty of the college, from six to ten additional instructors have been needed, in the first two years, to help with this work.

Not only is Missouri served in this capacity but the following other states are represented: Iowa, California, Wyoming, Montana, Illinois, Minnesota, Kansas, Arizona, North Dakota and Colorado.

With the growth of such interest in extension work as has been shown in the last year, the enrollment in the extension department promises to become larger than that of the regular summer quarter.

RECOMMENDATION COMMITTEE.

There are a number of high school positions which have not been filled. Those desiring a position, please see the committee. Mr. Phillips, Chairman.

ENROLLMENT IS SMALLER

Summer Enrollment Does Not Reach Figure of Last Summer—Probably Total Number of Students Here Will Go to 1450.

At 9:20 o'clock, Monday morning, 1220 students were enrolled in the college proper, that is not including the College Conservatory of Music. Small groups were standing about engaged in planning their courses, so the indications are that the enrollment will reach 1300 before the end of the week. The Conservatory usually accommodates 150 besides those taking academic work in addition. According to these estimates final enrollment should reach 1450, including the music students.

The following comparisons show the growth of the student body in the summer quarter.

1921	642 students
1922	1042 students
1923	1361 students
1924	1502 students
1925 approximately	1450 students

At the close of the second day's registration, 1127 students were enrolled. Never before had so many been able to enroll in that length of time. Last year only 948 had enrolled at the end of the second day. The increase was due to the fact that a more rapid system of handling registration was used in the registrar's office. An assistant in the office placed the names on record later, rather than holding up the line to do it then, as had been done in the past.

The slump in the enrollment this year is probably due to three conditions: First, the farmer's condition is just as tight as last year second, teachers' wages are being lowered in some places; and third, there is an over-supply of teachers at the present time.

The attitude of the student body is especially pleasing this summer. Everyone seems to be in an individual mood and still uses enough judgment to join in Play Day activities and other entertainments. It is hoped that the weather will remain favorable, so that such an excellent group will have the best possible conditions under which to work.

Practice Teachers Meet

Miss Margaret Franken held Monday evening, her first conference with the practice teachers of the high school department at which time plans for the quarter were made. It is the plan to make those conferences weekly. The time set for all subsequent meetings is the fifth period on Thursday. Questions pertaining to new methods of teaching are to be discussed and results of experimentation will be presented by those engaged in such teaching.

The classes in general are small. The work covered is the same as that of the regular public high school. Students are able to make one third of a unit in each course pursued and can aggregate a sum total of one and one third units during the quarter.

Following is the list of high school teachers and the department in which each is teaching:

F. L. Skait, History;
T. E. Dale, Citizenship;

COLLEGE OATH

We will never bring disgrace to this our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to maintain the respect and reverence in which it should be held. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us.

Objects of College Training

The object of college training, according to a report issued by a specially appointed committee of seniors at Dartmouth College, "is to stimulate independent thinking, to inspire to an intellectual life, to encourage under-graduates to dig out knowledge for themselves and aid them in developing conclusions; therefore, and prepare them for intellectual leadership."
This committee further found that the purpose is at present blocked by "the attempt at mass education, which should be abolished." Students, they say, should be encouraged to work personally for the information they desire.
"The criterion," declares the report, "is the student's ability to absorb, retain and reorganize on the proper occasions about half of the information and instruction seen fit to include in his course, together with the latter's personal authoritative commentary thereon."
"The modern student doesn't know how to investigate a subject. He only knows that if he reads with ordinary care certain designated pages of a certain designated book, he will know enough about the particular subject to answer questions he may be asked about it by the instructor."—American Campus.

Miss Clara Frank, a sister of Miss Katherine and Margaret Frank, and a senior at Missouri University, has been honored by election to Phi Beta Kappa, the honorary scholastic organization in American Universities. She has taken additional work at Boulder, Colorado, and extension work from the college at Warrensburg. During the summer Miss Burke will continue work on her Master's Degree in rural education at Teachers College, Columbia University.

Miss Burke has had rural, grade, high school, and college teaching experience in Colorado and Missouri. During the past school year she had charge of the teacher training room in the public schools of Ridgeway, Missouri.

She will take up her work with the state department about the middle of August.

Where the College Students go

Students of Emma Ordnung Win Contests

Emma Ordnung, B. S., is back for the summer quarter. She taught, last winter, in the consolidated schools at Cimarron, Kansas, having charge of the Commercial work in the high school.

On May 1, some of the high schools of Southwestern Kansas held a typewriting and shorthand contest at Garden City. Cimarron took first and second places in first year typewriting, and also won the cup awarded to the school winning the most points.

Miss Ordnung has been re-employed in Cimarron for the coming year.

President Lamkin went to Cameron Friday to deliver an address to the Missouri Conference of the Missouri School of Theology, under the auspices of the Methodist Church and Missouri Wesleyan College. Mr. Lamkin told them what he, as a layman, wanted a preacher to say.

To Have Regular Play Hour.

The first play hour of the summer session of S. T. C., was held last Thursday evening from 6:45 to 7:45 p. m., on the campus west of the gymnasium. Marching, games, and music were the forms of entertainment. A short business meeting was held after the program and the following officers were elected: President, Leland Medsker; vice-president, Dorothy Briet; secretary, Alice Thompson; treasurer, Bernice Hildebrand; chairman of banquet committee, Verna Skidmore; and chairman of program committee, Golda Parnan.

Mr. Canfield, reports that the enrollment in his classes is a little larger than is usual for summer quarters; also that a greater number than usual are doing laboratory work. This is encouraging, since the value of laboratory work in geography can not be over-estimated. Four courses are being offered this summer: Economic Geography, Elements of Geography, Human Geography and College Physiology.

John DeMotte is leaving this week for St. Louis, where he will attend the medical school of Washington University.

Faculty People Take Prizes at Flower Show

The college faculty is evidently interested in floriculture. In the flower show, sponsored by the D. A. R., many awards were received by persons directly or indirectly connected with the college.

Mrs. C. E. Wells, received first on three red peonies, and on six peonies, of one variety. Mrs. Henry Foster won first on the most artistic arrangement of iris. Miss Helwig won second on boutonniere. J. R. Brink received first on six varieties of iris, display of wild flowers, and corn flowers. Miss Barnard was awarded first on large centerpiece and a display of columbine. Mrs. Lamkin won first on display of roses, and in novelty class; and second in home decoration, full blown roses, and display of sweet william and delphinium.

Leona Badger was a Sunday guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Coken of Burlington Junction. Mrs. Coken was formerly Miss Orpha Faris, is a former student of S. T. C.

Vivian and Ella Smith spent the week-end in Bolckow with home folks.

Maye Sturm, Rita Fisher and Nora Kelley, summer students at S. T. C., went to Conception Sunday to attend a reception given at Parrish Hall in honor of Father Placidus, who was newly ordained.

Hazel Miller of Parnell, a former S. T. C. student, called on friends Friday evening at Residence Hall. She is now a stenographer in Grant City. Saidee Simmons accompanied her home to spend the week-end with relatives.

Hattie Jones, a student of S. T. C., spent the week-end at her home in Burlington Junction.

Carl Ferguson, who has been superintendent of schools at Hotton, Washington, has returned and will attend the summer session of S. T. C. He has been re-employed at Hatton.

Golda Barnes spent the week-end in St. Joseph visiting relatives.

Opal Calvert and Edith Ellis were members of a fishing party at the Nodaway River Sunday.

Cassie Burke of Albany, has been appointed rural school inspector of Northwest Missouri. She will succeed F. A. Thompson, who resigned to become superintendent of the Maysville Schools next year.

The Girl's Recreation Room was lovely last week with flowers, the gift of the D. A. R. Flower Show.

Many former members of Kappa Omicron Phi, have returned for the summer quarter. The sorority welcomes them one and all.

In the Smith Hughes Contest held at Columbia last month, one third of the prizes were awarded to girls trained in the Home Economics Department of Northwest Missouri State Teachers College.

C. T. "Bill" Richards, B. S. A. B., 1924, will enter the University of Chicago June 20. He has been re-employed as superintendent at Pattonburg for the coming year.

Johnnie Maxey of Trenton, a student of S. T. C., took the civil service examination given at the Maryville post office this week, for assistant librarian in field service. The examinations required about six hours' time.

Mrs. P. C. Deaton, of Kansas City, is the new housekeeper at Residence Hall. Her daughter Thelma is enrolled as a freshman in the commerce department of the College.

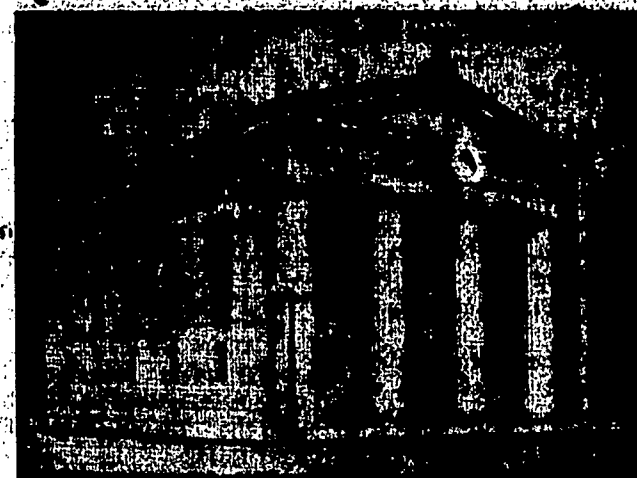

Will You Teach Them To Save?

The United States is the greatest and happiest nation on earth because it was founded by a thrifty and industrious people. It continues to prosper so amazingly because, all propaganda to the contrary notwithstanding, it is still the hardest-working, hardest-saving nation the world has ever known.

As we grow older we learn the value of thrift—mostly by experience. Younger folk, who heed, learn it easier and to a better advantage, by accepting wise advice.

Thrift should be taught in every schoolroom in the country. To give the children in your school their rightful chance in this country, it is your duty to teach them early and carefully the value of money and of work.

As you teach thrift in the schoolroom why not take a little of your own medicine? A savings account is the best way.

Students Organize In County Units

The students of Grundy County elected the following officers: Kassio DeHew, president; Gladys Sires, vice-president; Louise Freeman, secretary-treasurer.

Ira Young was appointed chairman of the program committee.

Harrison.

Harrison County claims 107 students in S. T. C. At the county meeting last Friday afternoon the following officers were elected: President, Florence Dunn of Gilman City; treasurer, Carroll Adair, of Hatfield. No definite plans were made. A county picnic will take place in the next two or three weeks, however.

Holt.

The following officers were elected by the Holt County group: President, Mrs. Mary Quilliams; secretary-treasurer, Alvah Wilson.

Livingston.

At the Livingston County meeting

the following officers were elected: President, Fred Keller; secretary-treasurer, Viola Anderson. Plans are under way for a county picnic.

Mercer.

The Mercer County group of S. T. C. students met and the following officers were elected: President, Stephen LaMar; secretary, Emma Leaty. Three committees were appointed to look after the group activities for the summer.

Nodaway.

The Nodaway County group elected the following officers: President, Claude Thompson; vice-president, Cella Howard; secretary, Nellie J. Hall; treasurer, Wilbur F. Williams.

No definite plans were made but a general committee composed of Claude Thompson, Homer Williams, and Mae Sturm, was appointed to arrange for programs and social functions.

Platte.

The following officers were elected for the Platte County group: President, Edna Plummer; secretary-treasurer, Maxine Miller.

Ray.

The students of S. T. C. from Ray County met Friday afternoon and organized. The officers selected were as follows: Chairman, John Hollan; secretary-treasurer, Julia Campbell. Since Ray, Platte and Clay Counties are not very well-represented in S. T. C., these counties, after organizing separately, had a joint meeting in which they organized as a single body. Gertrude Fulcher was elected as chairman of the group of three counties. These counties expect to make and carry out their plans together. At this meeting, plans were made for a picnic for Friday afternoon, June 12.

Worth.

At the meeting of students from Worth County the following officers were elected: Lorraine Hathaway, president; Ruth House, vice-president; and Helen Naill, secretary-treasurer.

Out of District.

At the meeting for those students out of the district or from another state the following officers were elected: President John Snyder; vice-president, Jack Sheley; secretary-treasurer, Leona Badger. Nebraska, Colorado, and California are represented by these three officers. There were also students present from Kansas, Iowa and various parts of Missouri. "Spice of the Nation" was the name adopted. The importance of getting acquainted with fellow students and the opportunity this group had of extending their friendships beyond Missouri was emphasized. Although many are not from Missouri they believe in showing folks what they can do. Watch "Spice of the Nation."

EDUCATIONAL "SHALL SHOCKS"

As Teacher, I shall:
1. Jump over the fence of tradition at least once a week.
2. Count that month lost which doesn't show one constructive suggestion made to my principal.
3. Forestall "that tired feeling" in June by browsing in January.
4. Help make my teachers' association—local, state, national—live wires by not being a "fine tooter."
5. Put the soft pedal on shop conversation out of school, or else make world interests my shop.
6. Have classes see the circus parade when it goes by, even if it isn't in the course of study.
7. Secure true mental pictures of my students' home surroundings by actual visits.
8. Systematize my out-of-school clerical work so that I shall hardly know I have it.
9. Use skyline current topics to vitalize my teaching.
10. Remember that I am a school salesman.
—W. H. Allen, In Public Service.

Croy Now Taking Special Course in Swiss Bell Ringing

"The word in Switzerland is that you have bought the Tribune," writes Homer Croy from Interlaken, after, he says, he paid 40 cents for a bath.

"Congratulations," continues the famous Nodaway County author in his communication to the Democrat-Forum. "I am glad to have known you when you were young and humble. You got a good paper and now the two of them published together ought to make the people of Maryville rub their eyes. I shall be most excited to see the new child. If he looks like his two daddies, he ought to take a prize in any baby show. Send me a copy or two."

"I have come to Switzerland to take a six-weeks course in yodeling and Swiss bell-ringing. After that I am going to see who puts the holes in Swiss cheese. And then I expect to move on to some new field of endeavor."

"I am now working on a new book, and expect to have it done before I turn my prow toward New York. This will be in October and unless I get a flat tire, I will run back to Nodaway and shake your talented hand."

Mr. Croy's letter is sent from "The Loyal and Benevolent Order of Swiss Cheese Hole Punchers, Local 606, Interlaken, Suisse."

Baker not Opposed to Defense Day Test

Missouri Governor Makes Clear His Position And States That Patriotic Observances Should Be Held.

Jefferson City, June 11.—Governor Sam A. Baker today made it plain that he had made no objections to a defense day test on July 4. He said efforts should be concentrated, however, on observing the holiday with patriotic demonstrations. The governor said he hoped the defense feature would be part of the celebration. The governor sent a letter to Dwight Davis, acting secretary of war, in which he said he did not believe an elaborate defense day program could be carried out because of the

To Close Road To Heavy Traffic

Steps to close the college road to public traffic were taken by the Board of Regents in their last meeting in St. Joseph. The road under question is the one running north-east Residence Hall and over the bridge.

It was made clear that this road is state property and should not be used as a public thoroughfare for truck-hauling. Heavy trucks are noisy, they endanger the lives of the students on the campus, and they soon cut out the road, making repairs necessary. At this time funds are low and no extra help can be hired to rebuild the roads which are cut out by unnecessary traffic.

LOAN FUND

Student Loan Fund—With a gift of $60.00 to the class of 1917 originated the Student Loan Fund. The summer of 1917 students and faculty purchased Liberty Bonds to the amount of $600.00 as an endowment. Cash additions to the working funds have been made by various classes and organizations and by accumulation of interest, until these funds now amount to over $1000.00.

The Student Loan Fund has made it possible for several to finish work leading toward a certificate, thus making them self-supporting citizens. More demands are being made and more money is needed. Any class, organization or friend of the College, interested in promoting education and self-supporting citizens will be doing much to encourage education by adding any amount, large or small to the fund.

The fund is administered by a committee made up of Dean G. H. Colbert, Chairman, Hettie M. Anthony, Secretary and Curator of funds, Mrs. A. R. Perrin, Asst. to the Dean of Women, and W. A. Rickenbrode, Registrar.

THE ROOMMATE PSALM

My roommate is my nemesis; I live in want.
She maketh me to sit up to do her shorthand;
She leadeth me to appear green green in mine own classes;
She never restoreth my soap.
She leadeth me into ice-cream parlors to save her own change.
Yea, though I talk a volley and fuss 'till I'm out of breath,
She plays her lute the louder.
She is ever with me.
Her belts and ribbons, they discom-fort me;
She anointeth her head with my brillianine.
Surely blueness and gloom shall not follow me all the days of my life;
For I won't have to dwell in a room with her forever. —Exchange.

In Suspense

A certain young man student, (we could give his name) told his girl one night last week that if she did not marry him he would get a rope and hang himself in front of her home.
"Oh, please don't do it William," she said, "You know father doesn't want you hanging around here!"

When.

Jealous Freshie—"Well, that's carrying a joke too far."

Benefit Picture for "Tower" to Be Shown

"He Who Gets Slapped" will be presented Friday and Saturday nights at the College Auditorium for the benefit of the 1925 "Tower."

Lon Chaney, as the clown, is a human of sympathetic character who will please every one.

The story centers about a noted scientist whose life work and whose wife are taken by a man who was supposed to be his best friend. Despondent, the scientist joins a circus as a clown. While the story is essentially tragic, the European circus takes away any depression that might result.

Real Philosophy.

I would be true for there are those who trust me;
I would be pure for there are those who care;
I would be strong for there is much to suffer;
I would be brave for there is much to bear;
I would be friend to all, the foe, the friendless;
I would be giving and forget the gift;
I would be humble for I know my weakness;
I would look up and laugh, and love, and lift.

The Stroller

The Stroller thought he was going to have a vacation this summer but his degree was held up because he had too many honor points. Now, that was a terrible blow to the Stroller for he had never heard of such a ruling although he had frequently been warned by fellow students not to work too hard.

Just to get even with somebody, the Stroller is going to take it out on the faculty just this once. If the faculty ever suspects the identity of the Stroller he may get his grades cut and so cut down the excess honor points so he can get his degree.

Now the Stroller has nothing against Mr. Richman, but she cannot help wondering why in a strange city not long since she found him wearing one light shoe and one dark one—even worse, still, one high shoe and the other an oxford! He told some wild tale about a Pullman car, a drunk man, somebody getting off in the night, the porter, et cetera, et cetera, but the Stroller somehow cannot get the story through his head.

New members of the faculty ought to be exempt, but when the new member is an old student "ought to" don't hold. "Slats" Sealeman started a course in Campusology but declared the class closed when he got one student. The Stroller had hoped to take the course.

And then, there's Miss Dykes. The Stroller hopes to slip this down to the printer instead of turning in copy on it as usual and so get by with it. The Stroller really hates to tell it, but Miss Dykes was so absent-minded the first week that one day she forgot to go to class. She contends it is because the fifth period ought to come in the afternoon as it has all year, but the Stroller wonders.

Mr. Rickenbrode has escaped for a long time but the Stroller wishes to make the announcement right now that she is going to tell it if ever again she sees him trying to walk on that narrow cement wall of that tunnel running from main building to the gym. His arm movements "were almost as funny as those of some of the girls just learning to swim."

Even Mr. Phillips comes in for a word. The Stroller has just learned that Mr. Phillips is the biscuit maker for Bachelors' Hall, but that he is not always ready for unexpected visitors.

And it is a Spanish teacher who, when wanting a student to look up an irregular verb, said, "Now turn and look at your appendix!" Didya ever?

The Stroller thought that serenading had gone the way of the hoop-skirt and the mustache-cup, so maybe you'll understand why we were surprised when we heard one evening at a late hour several male voices singing beneath our window. Was our pleasure any the less because the gentlemen drove up in a Ford roadster or because the song was meant for other ears than ours? Not in the least, it had all the thrill of the experience of a lifetime!

Guess whom the Stroller saw the other day! "The Lady in the upstairs Window." Do you suppose she will fill this column some day?

Miss Teagarden of the home economics department is in New York on business. Mrs. Ralph Marcell has charge of her work at the college. Mrs. Marcell, formerly, Miss Grace Stevenson, is a graduate of S.
